

How do we teach languages at Blackwell?

- Spanish lessons are taught following the Kapow Scheme
- Learning about the culture as well as the language
- Looking for opportunities within other subjects to learn different words
- Using a variety of activities to learn such as songs and games
- Where children have an additional language they become the 'teacher' to use their expertise for peers
- Parents who speak different languages are invited into school to discuss their culture and share their views